A TRIP TO THE HOSPITAL IS HARD ENOUGH

Be a host, and Open Your Home To Someone in Need!

As our hosts will tell you, being a host is simply a wondrous experience!

Its so easy to be a host!

You only lodge guests who you want, when you want, for how long you want.

You only have to provide a clean bath, comfortable bed and a feeling of home.

Your guests are responsible for their own food and transportation.

Since July 2000 HfH hosts have provided 1,198 patient-families a combined total of 33,041 nights of lodging, saving these guests an estimated $2,043,000 in equivalent hotel expenses.

Hosts Page Talbott and Jim Gould of Bala Cynwyd with guests Annie, Marin and Jerid Smith. Jerid received a lung transplant at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania.

Host homes are needed throughout the Greater Philadelphia area, especially in Center City and the University City District.
